

FAITH ACADEMY BELLVILLE

FAITH ACADEMY BELLVILLE 12177 Highway 36 Bellville, Texas 77418

Position: University Model Self-Contained Elementary Teacher

Status: Part-Time

Faith Academy is looking for a passionate and dedicated part-time self-contained elementary teacher to support the university-model segment of our campus. This role is ideal for an experienced elementary educator who values strong family partnerships, academic excellence, and intentional faith integration.

This teacher will provide high-quality, faith-centered instruction in a University-Model elementary classroom that combines on-campus teaching with parent-led learning at home. The teacher is responsible for delivering direct instruction on campus while equipping and supporting families to reinforce and continue learning during remote days.

Job Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver engaging, standards-aligned instruction across core elementary subjects for 2 combined grades at a time (e.g. K/1st; 2nd/3rd; 4th/5th) during on-campus instructional days
- Maintain a self-contained classroom that supports students' academic, social, spiritual, and emotional development
- Design lessons, assignments, and learning plans that support effective parent-led instruction on remote learning days
- Integrate faith, biblical values, and character development into instruction, classroom culture, and communication with families
- Collaborate with other faculty to support consistent academic standards
- Communicate clear expectations, instructional guidance, and feedback to parents to support at-home learning
- Assess student progress and adjust instruction based on data and observations from both on-campus and remote learning
- Maintain accurate records, lesson plans, and student documentation
- Participate in staff meetings, professional development, and school activities as appropriate for a part-time role

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education with Teacher Certification
- Minimum of 5 years successful elementary teaching experience preferred
- Strong instructional, classroom management, and communication skills
- Demonstrated commitment to faith-based education and alignment with the school's mission and Philosophy statement

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

-Galatians 2:20
