FAITH ACADEMY BELLVILLE 12177 Highway 36 Bellville, Texas 77418

Position: Junior High ELAR Teacher

In planning for the 2026-2027 school year, Faith Academy is searching for a Junior High ELAR teacher who will be responsible for providing engaging, Christ-centered instruction to students in grades 6-8. The teacher will cultivate a classroom environment that promotes academic excellence, spiritual growth, critical thinking, and strong character development. The ideal candidate demonstrates a passion for teaching middle school students, strong classroom management skills, and a commitment to partnering with parents and school leadership in the discipleship and education of students.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach ELAR courses for 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students.
- Develop and implement lesson plans aligned with school curriculum and educational standards.
- Teach reading comprehension, grammar, vocabulary, composition, literature analysis, writing mechanics, and public speaking skills.
- Differentiate instruction to meet varying academic needs of students.
- Utilize a variety of instructional methods, technology tools, and assessments to enhance student learning.
- Foster strong written and verbal communication skills in students.

Spiritual Leadership

- Continue to seek and maintain a personal relationship with Jesus.
- Encourage, nurture, and model godly character for peers, parents, and students.
- Provide spiritual growth opportunities for staff and students through daily devotions, prayer and appropriate participation in weekly chapel services.
- Support, encourage and edify the school community.
