The Knightly News

Faith Academy FFA and Art Students Share their Projects

The excitement of the Austin County Fair has swept through the county and Faith Academy Bellville is no exception. The Knights are ready to present their hard work to the judges and also squeeze in some fun at the carnival and rodeo.

Western Day Fun Kicks-off the Austin County Fair

Western Day kicked-off Fair week for our Early Education Center (EEC) and Elementary students in authentic style. From the genuine chuck wagon to hay rides, barrel train rides, campfire snacks, and line dancing, students embraced the festivities in full Western attire, celebrating the rural heritage that makes our community special.

Cultivating Creativity at the ACF Plant Show

Faith Academy students represent the Knights with pride throughout the entire fair. In fact, at the time of publication, several have already competed, including Faith Academy Junior FFA Chapter members Eden Hargrave and Piper Maddox, who won Grand Champion in the Junior Floral Design category with their stunning creation featuring flowers entwined with generations of devices - from a vintage typewriter to an iPhone. In the Mini-Scapes project, the pair also placed 10th and won the Junior Showmen award.

Ila Hargrave and Aimeè Duplantis also placed 7th in the Floral Design category, with Faith Academy student Stella Burson and her partner coming in 8th place.

Eden, Piper, Ila, and Aimeè also participated in the Floral Cup category. Eden brought home the Grand Champion buckle with her festive Halloween-inspired design.

Faith Academy will be well represented in the Home Economics Show, with Katelynne Galle, Eden, Ila, and Piper, all contributing handcrafted sewing projects and delicious baked goods they've spent weeks perfecting.

Goats, Rabbits, Colts, Oh My!

Faith Academy students have been raising and preparing a variety of livestock projects and are eager to show off their hard work.

Starting on Monday, Grady Ward and Charlotte Ward of Faith Academy Junior FFA will present their rabbit meat pens, a single fryer, and compete in showmanship.

4-H member Stella Bagnall will compete Tuesday in the Lamb Show, while Faith Academy FFA members Katelynne Galle, Kelton Galle, and Grayden Gaylord will show off their swine projects.

Wednesday morning begins with the Goat Show, where 4-H members and sisters Aubrey Jackson, Ila Jackson, Iris Jackson, and Jayleen Jackson will take to the ring with their goat projects.

Later that day, in the Colt Show, 4-H member Stella Burson will enter her Filly, and 4-H member Jett Hollis will enter his Gelding. Faith Academy FFA members Aliyah Wilson and Michael Wilson will also enter their Fillies.

Faith Academy Artists Abound at the Fair

Faith Academy's talented art students will showcase their artwork at the Austin County Fair. Representing first grade are Millie Cole and Grace August, and from second grade, Brie Minarcik. Third graders Scarlett Oray and Franny Creegan, as well as 4th grader Autumn Maley, will also present their artwork at the fair. Our 5th-grade artists are: Gibson Schroller, Henry Kocian, Colette Hyslop, Knox Reynolds, Ellie Kate Cameron, Giselle Schultea, Tori Davies, Shiloh Horsley, and Aria Villarreal.

Faith Academy Junior High and High Schools are also home to many talented artists. Representing the junior high Knights are: Eva Broadbent, Siena Hyslop, Katelynn Galle, Colton Moore, Wyatt August, Cahill Krumrey, Thomas Ingenhuett, Karter Mayfield, Talia Davies, and Sophia Sharma. Our high school artists are: Anthony Best, Abigail Bashaw, Eve Hyslop, Kristen Kouba, Jayla Jackson, Sara DeVoke, Lilli Sewell, Aliyah Wilson, Quinton Moore, Livi Schroller, Daniela Skardenni, and Jasmin Becerra.

Our FFA is active year-round and has also kicked off its annual food drive, which will run through November 20.

The entire Faith Academy Bellville community is extremely proud of our students and sends its support and encouragement to everyone at the Austin County Fair. We look forward to seeing the outstanding projects this week!
