THE KNIGHTLY NEWS

KNIGHTS BRING THE SPIRIT: INSIDE FAB'S 2026 HOMECOMING WEEK

The spirit of Faith Academy of Bellville covered our campus during our Homecoming Week celebrations last week. We enjoyed a week of dress-up days and cheered on the teamwork that led to wins for our Lady Knights Junior High and High School Volleyball teams as well as the Knights Junior High and High School Football teams. Along the way, we celebrated with not one, but two pep rallies.

HOMECOMING WEEK KICKS OFF

Our chapel services always start the week on Monday morning with the right mindset as we praise the Lord our God, thank Him for all we have, and ask for the help, support, and love only He can give.

CUPS COWS AND COWBOY BOOTS

The fun kicked off on Tuesday, September 15, with a challenge to show off personality by matching cup to outfit. Some students wore polka dots head to toe, while others kept it simple by matching the color of their favorite Stanley or Owala. Our Philanthropy Director, Lori McDaniel, went all in on the theme of the upcoming Night of Knights gala, donning a Highland cow tee with the NoK scripture, He owns the cattle on a thousand hills. Psalms 50:10b, which coordinated perfectly with her adorable Highland cow mug.

Wednesday's assignment was to dress in "Country" or "Country Club." Out came the boots and belt buckles, an obvious choice out here in rural Bellville.

PAUSING TO PRAY TOGETHER

Our Junior High and High School students also enjoyed a break from the regular school day for the annual "Fall In" worship event, featuring inspirational music, prayer, and devotionals. The teens gathered, supporting each other as they prayed and shared their vulnerabilities. At FAB, we consider our students' spiritual growth as important as their academic growth.

SHIELDS UP KNIGHTS

Thursday's theme was 'Game On,' with students repping favorite players, college teams, and pro football and baseball squads, except our Head of School, Mrs. Kelli Diers, who split loyalties, wearing a jersey that cheered on both her alma mater, Texas A&M University, and the University of Southern California, where her daughter currently attends.

Mrs. Diers showed no favoritism with the divided jersey she wore for "Game On" day during the school's homecoming week.

KNIGHTS BRING THE SPIRIT: INSIDE FAB'S 2026 HOMECOMING WEEK

THE KNIGHTS TAKE THE FIELD

In games against Westlake Lutheran Academy, both the FAB Junior High and Varsity Volleyball teams showed off the skills and hard work from practice to earn a home win. After the games, the Beth Keaton Gymnasium glowed with school pride for the first of two pep rallies. The FAB cheerleaders entertained fans with a hip-hop routine made extra special by neon uniforms glowing under the black lights. Every member of the Knights Football and Lady Knights Volleyball teams introduced themselves to the crowd, and the night was capped off by a cup-stacking contest.

A sea of FAB blue took over campus for "Blue Out" Friday. Students, teachers, staff, and families in attendance at Friday's pep rally, where our emcee, Mrs. Stacy Woodley, presented each High School senior boy. Finally, the school announced and crowned Homecoming King Dyllan Olivares. The fun continued with hula hoop races, mattress races, and a "Rock, Paper, Scissors" competition. It was a joyous event that brought everyone together in anticipation of the football games to come that evening.

FAB Founder Mrs. Byler crowns Dyllan Olivares the 2026 Homecoming King.

Freshman Landyn Eberly slides his way across the Beth Keaton Gym at Friday's pep rally.

After the Junior High Knights won 48 to 8 against Second Baptist School University Model-North (SBSUM-North), the sun set and the Friday night lights turned on. The full stands overflowed with FAB fans, alums, families, and students. The Varsity Knights also beat SBSUM-North 66 to 14, with the game ending at halftime.

CROWNING THE ROYALS

In a special tradition, the Knights presented their Homecoming Court and crowned the Homecoming Queen. The Princesses, Freshman Charlotte Ward, Sophomore Lilliana Sewell, and Junior Peyton Eckermann, dressed in gorgeous gowns and sashes, were escorted by their dads, moms, and even a little brother across the field. After announcing the princesses, FAB Communications Director Yvonne Woods introduced each senior queen candidate, with Jayleen Jackson crowned the 2026 FAB Homecoming Queen.

Our high school students then headed off to the FAB Event Center for the Homecoming Dance.

KNIGHTS BRING THE SPIRIT: INSIDE FAB'S 2026 HOMECOMING WEEK

Faith Academy Homecoming Queen Jayleen Jackson and Homecoming King Dyllan Olivares.

From top to bottom, the creative and dedicated FAB Events Team and staff decorated the space in FAB blue with several photo ops, including an enormous, Texas-sized homecoming mum. The DJ kept the line dances coming and made the dance floor the place to be.

FAB High School students danced the night away at the homecoming dance.

The Homecoming Court in front of the Texas-sized mum photo op.

We hope the entire FAB student body, faculty, FAB alums, families, and our supportive community thoroughly enjoyed themselves during the 2026 Homecoming Week. By coming together to celebrate each other and the love for our school, we reflect the community God calls us to be. As Matthew 18:20 says, "For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them."

The Knights brought the FAB spirit during 2026 Homecoming Week.

WELCOME TO FAB

NATASHA KAY SULLIVAN

Hi, I'm Natasha Kay Sullivan! I teach Kindergarten and hold a BS in Interdisciplinary Studies.

I'm a lifelong Christian and have always known I was meant to teach. God gave me a talent to point young minds to Jesus. I love writing songs and weaving them into hands-on lessons, and I'm especially drawn to the Psalms and the story of David. My husband and I have a full house: an adult stepson, a 16-year-old daughter, an 18-year-old son, three dogs, a cat, a bird, and a hermit crab!

Hi, I'm Skyler Maley! I teach Middle and High School and hold a BA in Youth Ministry along with my Texas teaching certification. I love working with students, teaching something new, and the Bible. My hope is that they grow closer to God and in their understanding of God's Word. Outside the classroom, I enjoy camping, hunting, and working out. My wife and I have been married for 14 years and have two kids and two Yorkies. Fun fact: I'm Native American Indian. Favorite verse: "I have blessed you to be a blessing."

SKYLER MALEY

QUINTIN PEASE

Hi, I'm Quintin Pease! I work in Technology and hold a B.S. in English. I've always enjoyed the challenges and the satisfaction of finding solutions, and I love using technology to enhance teaching and learning. I like to travel and explore the outdoors as well as anything related to science and technology. I have 9 children and 12 grandchildren.

Fun fact: I can tear a thick phonebook in half with my bare hands. Favorite verse: Sirach 6:14.

Hi, I'm Brooke Tomlinson! I work in our Early Education Center and was a nanny for 5 years before joining FAB. I love feeling like I'm making a difference with kids and how rewarding every day feels.

Outside of work, I enjoy shopping and cooking. Favorite verse: Matthew 6:34.
